

Tear Garden, Malice Through The Looking Glass

Snowblind
I can't find my way back
Because my tracks move in spirals to me
Now I'm up to my knees
And it's freezing
I'm sinking
I'm thinking of you
And you wave
As you fade away
Float away
Blue as December
Dismembered
These fragments are glued
To my sails
I'm impaled on a rock
Where we carved our our names
And I blew you a kiss
But I missed
And you left me like this
I fade away
Float away
