

Teenage Fanclub, Guiding Star

When everything you own is lost
And every friendship has its cost;
Your rolling stone has gathered moss

And all your clouds cover the sun
And all your karma has undone
Remember you're my number one.

Hey! You're my guiding star;
I do know who you are,
You're my guiding star.

Don't you think you've heard this song before?
Jesus Christ was knocking at my door
Kinda like the way he wears his hair.
Kinda like the way he walks on air.
Could his golden halo
Be the sun we all know?
