

Teenage Fanclub, Live My Life

I want more
More more more
My highs feel low
So I'll go home

To live my life
To live my life
To live my life

I know
My thoughts won't grow
But the cliches go
And I go home

To live my life
To live my life
To live my life

[BREAK]

I know my friends
Has no depends
My thoughts may run
But I'll stay home

To live my life
To live my life
To live my life
