Teenage Fanclub, Mellow Doubt

It gives me pain, when I think of you And the things together that we'll never do At first it's code, and then it's hot Tried to be someone that I know I'm not

I'm in trouble, and I know it How I'm feeling, I can't show it But these feelings, don't go away

I remember you, lines on your face. Sharing a moment in the perfect place. I'm deep in your eyes, and inside your head. And I try to reach you, when I'm in my bed.

I'm in trouble, and I know it How I'm feeling, I can't show it But these feelings, don't go away

[Whistling solo]

There is no choice, in what I must do. Nothing is greater than to be with you.

I'm in trouble, and I know it How I'm feeling, I can't show it But these feelings, don't go away
