

Teenage Fanclub, Tears

There's no future so don't fake it
Don't know if you're going to make it
When everything becomes unclear

You're tired and you're broken
You're true feelings remain unspoken
You couldn't hide behind your name

You're excited and ecstatic
You're exit was so dramatic
When all your passion disappeared

You're no sucker so don't blow it
You're succeeding but you don't know it
You've got to turn yourself around
