

Teenage Fanclub, The Cabbage

Goodbye girl
Where did you go?
Woke up this morning
and I didn't know
We were together
but now we're not Asked you for nothing
that's what I got

It's okay, even better this way
That's what they'll tell you
That's what they'll say

Are we together?
I guess we're not
Do you still want me?
that's what I thought Look in the mirror and I'm a mess Open the window
forget about the rest

It's okay, even better this way
That's what they'll tell you
That's what they'll say

It's okay, even better this way
That's what they'll tell you
That's what they'll say
