

Terence Trent D'Arby, Do You Love Me Like You

Now do you love me like you say you do baby?

(Do you love me like you say you do?)

Listen baby, until I find the river

I won't be satisfied with who I am

In my Monasteryo your love ran hot or cold

Symphony or damn

I wanna be careful not to lose by laughter

What I've gained by tears

So here's a question baby

You answer I most need to hear

Now do you love me like you say you do baby?

(Do you love me like you say you do?)

I give my best to the best of your breed

Take my heart pretty baby

I believe that I have all that I need

I exist for you wholly in this hour

As the leaves exist

Surely for the sake of the flower

Now do you love me like you say you do baby?

(Do you love me like you say you do?)

It seems that you have all these emotional dragons

That you must slay

I believe your daddy didn't treat you right

So it seems now TTD must pay

The troubles advance while the sorrows retreat

Yet whichever road you travel baby

I genuinely wish you godspeed

But before you go answer my question

Now do you love me like you say you do baby?

(Do you love me like you say you do?)
