

Terminal Choice, Castles In The Sky

you're laying next to me I look into your eyes but everything I see is what I never wanted so I have to find a way out of fear
I want you dead
you destroyed my life

(Chorus)
I build not castles in the sky
I know you can't reach them
I don't believe that you can fly and I'm not the one to teach you I keep you deep inside my heart you're the one that makes me sad I can't stand it anymore but you never see me cry

I cut you into pieces your blood spread on the wall I hope you rest in peace now my work is done!

(Chorus)
