

Terminal, Watching, Wasting, Waiting

watching you taking your time wasting mine just waiting on you misery might keep me hanging around if you're never gonna let me live this down every train I take, stops the same place right where you are

it's been a long time but I hear you don't wander far from lonesome hours at the bar call to ask me why I never come around when are you gonna let me live this down?

I was tired of lying alone for you so I became a desert to your raining finding myself in the sun I became a desert to your raining cos' I don't want to be the one

you always keep me hanging around you're never gonna let me live this down
