The 69 Eyes, Jimmy

I would've never thought you could be crying As you saw Jimmy in Giant Angels never same since they stopped flying Bright beautiful flames burn brightly THat's the same

Little runaway with my heart I'll be waiting Little runaway with my heart For you baby

I would've never thought I could be crying On this dirty old boulevard the dreams are dying Where the lonely teardrops Never be drying Bright beautiful flames always burn brightly That's the same

Little runaway with my heart I'll be waiting
Little runaway with my heart
For you baby
