

The Adicts, Peculiar Music

Isn't it strange
But it makes a change
From the usual mediocraty
Sing about big brother
Or sing about some other
Brave new world
Medieval factions
With nuclear reactions
Make interesting subjects
This is civilization
Or imagination
Or some old melodrama
The future enslaves us
Will something ever save us
From a fate worse than life
We don't understand
But we should demand
To know the reason

Odd couple thats you and me
Odd couple we're different,
you and me.
Odd couple thats you and me
Odd couple we're different,
you and me.
That's you and me.
