

The Autumn Offering, Ghost

Where were you
In this world?
Where were you?
I don't know
I gave it all
And you gave none.
Is left undone

This time confronted
With all these
Ghosts I'm haunted
Won't you bear my shame?
I made this mistake
I hate to hear
These words now
I'll walk this
Path no more

Now when you're
Looking down
Down upon me
Well don't you try
And forget
What you have done
It's stuck in me
And I won't forget
This time

Where were you
In all this world?
Where were you?
I don't know

I gave it all and
You gave none
I gave it all
You gave it none
It's been so long
Since you have gone
You had the world
You threw it out
It'll all come back to
