

The Bella Cullen Project, We don

We dont need no stinking fangs!
Dont provoke us, theres no surer thing.
Weve been dropping hints like you don't know.
Theres a war thats ready to blow.
This is a warning to the world
Listen up all you boys and girls
There will be destruction like youve never known.
Blood will be spilled by the first new snow.
We dont need no stinking fangs!
Ive got fresh blood running through my veins.
Ive got this strength that I never knew.
Im ready to fight, now how about you?
This is a warning to the world.
Listen up all you boys and girls
There will be destruction like youve never seen
We will leave our tracks fresh and clean.
Cause we dont need no stinking fangs.
