

The Call, Notified

I was dead set against it Ever going this far
I&Otilde;m not that ambitious Going this far
But you heard my thoughts
You heard my saddest
words
I have been caught
I figured I never would,
never would
You have been told
You have been notified
You have been loved
You have been notified
Strength lies in weakness
When the heart volunteers
To drop all defenses
Am I making it clear
You heard my thoughts
You heard my saddest
words
I came apart
I thought I never would,
never would
You have been told
You have been notified
You have been loved
You have been notified
The branch that has fallen Wingless birds strike the ground
Hear the desperate calling
With a deafening round
You heard my thoughts
You heard my saddest
words
I came apart
I figured I never would,
never could
You have been told
You have been notified
You have been loved
You have been notified
