

The Cyan Velvet Project, Passive Attack

from predator to prey still feeling entertained sudden death yet no surprise oblivious, demonized worldwide tyranny
left with impunity
i won't obey any master but unavoidable disaster the future is dead ahead
the future is dead i hate myself for this but this is what i missed the most so i won't slit my wrists and go so low i go solo the world has been on the wrong lane for so long so we maintain in false constellation endless conversations of things never meant to be we parasites of earth
so were walking blindfolded towards the essence of disposal but that's how the story goes
you got to be serious opposing is furious shaking the ground in the places, various bury us deep we the wolves, we the sheep still 72 steps to the heap
faith of the nations
a spiritual evacuation freedom of religion at most under contemplation
that future is dead
