

The Damned, Feel The Pain

i know you're cold but i've seen it before i'd take a chance on the wine your starched white lips introvenous she drips in fear of turning blind hair to grey and some guys say shows you're ,shows you're growing old do it again,i can't explain the light sure seems cold feel the pain it leaves no stain feel the pain the name of the game drop some blues,time to choose why your heart is st- st - stabbing bloody eyes can't describe the nature of your ha ha hacking back to front,the blade tastes blunt in the safety of your bedroom no desire to touch the fire there's just a,just a sad obsession feel the pain,it leaves no stain,leaves no stain
feel the pain,it leaves no stain ....stain feel the pain,the name of the game
