

The Do, Playground Hustle

We are not crazy
We are not afraid of your grown-ups
We'll go ask the queen of this kingdom
If you won't let us play with screws and hammers
We are not shady
We are not afraid of you adults
We'll go talk to the king
If you don't let us play with dolls
Now boys play with pink girls at the break
See they're not blindly stuck up with colours
And girls like to run with boys
In the muddy school garden
And pick up frogs and worms
From the generous earth
Girls and boys giggling&sharing
Let them young restless seeds
Choose their own toys
Girls and boys giggling&sharing
Isn't it more convenient for flirting
