The Doobie Brothers, Without You

I get a feelin', lost without you baby Livin' alone is drivin' me crazy Don't you know I got nowhere to go You should be the one that's hurtin' You got everything you need

Back in the days when love was so easy I was fancy free and laughin' with no reason Things have changed Your touch has grown strange I can't help myself I know that you have left me dyin' here

Baby, baby
I can't live without you
Baby, baby
I can't live without you no more
Baby, baby
I can't live without you
I feel you know it, huh

Oh, baby, now I'm lost without my baby Oh, baby, baby, babe, don't you hear right now
