The Format, On Your Porch

I was on your porch the smoke sank into my skin so i came inside to be with you and we talked all night, about everything we could imagine cause come the morning i'll be gone and as our eyes start to close, i turn to you and i let you know, that i love you well my dad was sick and my mom she cared for him her love it nursed him back to life and me i ran, i couldnt even look at him, for fear i'd have to say goodbye and as i start to leave he grabs me by the shoulder and he tells me, whats left to lose. you've done enough and if you fail well then you fail, but not to us cause these last three years, i know they've been hard but now it's time to get out of the desert and into the sun even if it's alone so now here i sit, in a hotel off of sunset my thoughts bounce off of sam's guitar and that's the way it's been, ever since we were kids but now, now we've got something to prove i can see their eyes but tell me something, can they see mine? cause whats left to lose, i've done enough and if i fail, well then i fail, but i gave it a shot and these last three years, i know they've been hard but now its time to get out of the desert and into the sun even if it's alone even if it's alone i was on your porch last night, the smoke it sank into my skin
