The Hoosiers, Everything Goes Dark

Hypnotised by mirrors You should look out your window Beneath cracked panes of ice Your sky's on fire Drowned by the screams of decadence A call to arms Too busy working out to Work it out

It's not gonna matter what you chose It's too late when everything goes Da ya ya yark Da ya ya yark

Creeping up on you Tt knows your name All that you left behind Will never be the same It's come for all that you hold dear She starts to cry And here's a song to break your heart You're looking in the dark I can't see It's getting late In the night we make mistakes

Da ya ya yark Da ya ya yark Da ya ya yark Da ya ya yark

Would you leave yourself alone? If everything goes dark Would you lighten up your town? Once everything goes dark Everything goes dark Everything goes dark

Da ya ya ya yark Da ya ya ya yark Da ya ya ya yark Da ya ha ha Da ya ha ha Da ya ha ha Da ya ha ha Da ya ha ha

Da ya ya yark Da ya ya yark Da ya ya yark
