

The Kelly Family, We Got Love

it's alright now
the day ain't over
it's alright babe,
cause we're still standing
we're sure looking shaggy
and raggy
and funny
but ever smile, boy
is a revelation!

we're living on fate
yeah, we living on hope in the darkness and if the love is all we need when living in a world of madness then you got ma and i got you and we got all we need!
cause we got love!
yes, we got love!
