

The Kid LAROI, Still Yours (From The Doc)

When I last saw you at the house on the hill
My head was spinnin' and my body was still
The realization that it's over, the chills
I feel, I feel
My stomach twists and turns whenever I think about
You layin' up, yeah, next to someone like him
I know that it's been over for some months, but I feel
I'm still, I'm still

I'm still yours
Tell me, where did I go wrong?
I'm writin' this to let you know
I'll do anything but let you go (Go, go)
You're in control
The only way that I'm not strong
I'm writin' this to let you know
I'll do anything but let you go (Go, control)

A million times I said sorry
But lookin' back, it's not on me
I tried to act like I wasn't hurt
Just see in my eyes, I can't hide it
And I try to leave it on pleasant terms
Every time your name comes up, there's dirt
And I still defend you, but it hurts me
'Cause I still feel like-

I'm still yours
Tell me, where did I go wrong?
I'm writin' this to let you know
I'll do anything but let you go (Go, go)
You're in control
The only way that I'm not strong
I'm writin' this to let you know
I'll do anything but let you go (Go, control)
