

The Kingston Trio, Hobo's Lullaby

Chorus:

Go to sleep, you weary hobo. Watch the towns go drifting by. Can't you hear the rails a-singin'? Th

Don't you worry about tomorrow. Let tomorrows come and go.

Tonight you've got a nice, warm boxcar, free from all the wind and snow.

(Chorus)

I know the police cause you trouble. They cause trouble everywhere,

But when you die and go to heaven, there'll be no policemen there.

(Chorus)

Can't you hear the rails a-singin', ooh? That's the hobo's lullaby.
