From Justus

It breaks my heart to say "Goodbye"
I know that I deserve to cry
I know that time will see me through
But in this mean time
All I dream about is you

Unlucky stars are in my sky
My fortune teller, she saw me and cried
She said that I might have to wait
My lucky ship is lost
And comin' in too late

Unlucky stars
Unlucky stars
Venus and Mars
Are up in arms

If now it's time to let to
Give me some time to let you know
That I adored you till the end
I couldn't stand another day without a friend
I couldn't stand another day without a friend
