

The Moody Blues, Miracle

I closed the door and I walked away
From the life I knew
On a night in June
I took a chance and I lost control
Trying to find out why
On a night in July

Why this hesitation?
I can feel that the night is slipping away
Wanna drown in the ocean of your love
Wanna dance in the moonlight
Looking for a miracle
Looking for a miracle

I left the city on a wave of despair
Just to stand on my own
On an August night
From the valley of broken hearts
Gonna make a new start in September

Why this confusion?
I can feel that the night is slipping away
Wanna walk from the shadows to the sun
Just to dream on a summer night
Dream about a miracle
Looking for a miracle

Never had the chance before
To turn the tide my way
In the heat of the summer night
You took my breath away
Looking for a miracle

Wanna walk from the shadows to the sun
Just to dream on a summer night
Dream about a miracle
Your love is just a miracle

I closed the door and I walked away
From the life I knew
On a night in June
I took a chance and I lost control
Trying to find out why
On a night in July

Why this hesitation?
I can feel that the night is slipping away
Wanna drown in the ocean of your love
Wanna dance in the moonlight
Looking for a miracle
Love is just a miracle

Looking for a miracle
Your love is just a miracle

Looking for a miracle
