

The Motorhomes, Stop me

This might be one of the last songs
Ill ever sing, tonight is alright
Im not shy and I will please you
Im still alive, tonight is alright
Stop me now
Because I am falling
Falling out of line
Its hard
But Im trying
I wont let you down
I dont care where you are going
Ill dance all night with your best friend
Life is hard enough without you
So why pretend
This is the end
You do not want to see me like this
I am falling
