

The Overtones, Love song

Woohoo hoo
You said you wanted me to write a love song
Now that your gone
I finally wrote one for you
I thought i maybe write it in a letter
But its so much better
When i sing it out for you

So i put my pen to paper
Pulled my heart back off the shelf
With you on my mind
My little love song wrote its self

And it goes
Woohoo hoo
Baby got a brand new melody
Cause you dont mean Jack to me
Now can you sing that back to me

Woohoo hoo
Baby are you listening to me
No you dont mean Jack to me
But can you sing that back to me

You no you had me wrapped around your finger
Like the ring i gave ya
But you gave it back to me
Hoping that you like this song i made ya
Im going to serenade ya
And all your neighbours too

So i put my pen to paper
Pulled my heart back off the shelf
But with you on my mind
My little love song wrote its self

And it goes
Woohoo hoo
Baby got a brand new melody
Cause you dont mean Jack to me
Now can you sing that back to me

Woohoo hoo
Baby are you listening to me
No you dont mean Jack to me
But can you sing that back to me

Oh
Bet you never thought that i'd be moving on
I know that you were smiling while you did me wrong
Did you want to break me, take me
Shake me anyway you want
Now theres nothing left to do
But to sing it back to you

And it goes
Woohoo hoo
Baby got a brand new melody
Cause you dont mean Jack to me
Now can you sing that back to me

Woohoo hoo
Baby are you listening to me
No you dont mean Jack to me

But can you sing that back to me
Sing it, sing it, sing it back to me /4x
