

The Queers, Everthing's Going My Way

I didn't feel so hot when I woke up today
The phone rang, I grabbed it and I heard you say:
"Hey man, whatcha doing right now,
Get off your ass and come downtown
Hurry up and love might come your way."
And I rush and run, I know how to have fun
And I'm gonna do it my way
With you right by my side, you appeal to my pride
And I wouldn't have it any other way

Everything's going my way (x3)

The sun is out and I'm gonna have a good day
Gonna get drunk, oh yeah I'm, hoping you'll stay
"Hey man, whatcha doing right now,
Get off your ass and come downtown
Hurry up and love might come your way."
And I rush and run, I know how to have fun
And I'm gonna do it my way
With you right by my side, you appeal to my pride
And I wouldn't have it any other way

Everything's going my way (x3)

Why won't you ever listen
You don't know what you're missing
Why won't you hang out with me

Everything's going my way
