The Ramones, Humankind

Humankind, it's not fair, why should we all live in fear Humankind, it's a test, to see who's the very best Humankind, don't know why, no one cares who lives or dies Humankind, don't look at me, look at yourself, what do you see

People - always tellin' lies, they can keep their alibi

People - knockin' at my door, how come they want more and more People - talkin' behind your back, most of them drive a Gadillac

People - staring at your clothes - I CAN'T TAKE IT ANYMORE, NO MORE

Humankind, it's a shame, some don't even know their name Humankind are so strange, some need to be rearranged Humankind, don't know why, no one cares who lives or dies. Humankind, don't look at me, look at yourself, what do you see

People - always tellin' lies, they can keep their alibi

People - knockin' at my door, how come they want more and more People - talkin' behind your back, most of them drive a Gadillac

Tell me, tell me, who's to blame, for people acting this way Tell me, tell me, what's so wrong, if humans just got along Tell me, tell me please, if psychiatric help is what we nedd - (oh)

People - always tellin' lies, they can keep their alibi

People - knockin' at my door, how come they want more and more People - talkin' behind your back, most of them drive a Gadillac People - staring at your clothes - I CAN'T TAKE IT ANYMORE,

People - yeah People - yeah
