The Smashing Pumpkins, Aeroplane Flies High

I really don't want to look stupid when I'm sleeping
I never really liked sunny days
The black wings just reach out to me over the distance
I can feel the wind from the wings
I see the clouds and I feel the ocean with my feet
I know I'm home
It requires an ablity to judge distance
The aeroplane flies high

Love is a sentimental heart Life is a sentimental way Spy the fragile heart so cursed As he walks across this earth

I'm disconnected by your smile Disconnect a million miles And what you promised me I hope will set you free I'm disconnected by your smile

If I knew where I was going I would already be there Ha-ha-ha I don't know For sure I'm going to her Judicial, beautiful, ahh ormentive whatever I've always been afraid to die but I think I'm more afraid to live

And all I gave to you is lust And all you took from me is lust Black wings carry me so high Up to meet you in the sky

I'm disconnected by your smile Disconnect a million miles And what you promised me I hope will set you free I'm disconnected by your smile

Wishing you were real to me Wishing i could make believe I'll take my secrets to the grave Safely held beneath the waves Always knew I couldn't save Always knew I couldn't save you

And in my heart I know you there And in my heart I know you care And in my heart I know you gone
