

The Stanley Brothers, Will He Wait A Little Longer

On cruel Calvary where he suffered
There he died upon the cross
That we might be saved my brother
Freed from sin and not be lost

Will he wait a little longer
There's so many out in sin
Will he wait a little longer
Give us time to gather in

A vision of that mangled body
I can see his nail-scarred hands
When He calls me way up yonder
I will hear and understand

Many loved ones gone before me
They've made their peace for the final day
But should He call before they're ready
I can almost hear them say
