

The Thrillseekers, By Your Side

Haze, with no air to breathe
Blaze, from the sunshine
Standing, skin on skin
Hands dancing over me
Here, where love can grow
Clear, still waters
Blue, from a summer sky
True words never die
Gazing at a perfect sky
Close my eyes, and I'll be there by your side
Dreaming of the days gone by
Take me back to when I was by your side,
by your side
Breathing in and breathing out
This is what life's all about
Lost inside my inner mind
Leaving all the haze behind
Gazing at a perfect sky,
Close my eyes, and I'll be there by your side
Dreaming of the days gone by,
Take me back to when I was by your side,
by your side
