

The Weeknd, Final Lullaby

I am running out of time and you'll always be on my mind and I can't make you stay

in this broken place
and I hope you find peace close your eyes as I put us to sleep
finally to sleep
finally

finally

I am alone
the trouble
