

The Weeknd, Wasted Times wasted Times i spent with someone else she wasn't even half of you reminiscing how you felt /2x and even though you put my life through hell I can't seem to forget about you, about you I want you to myself

and now I'm asking
who do you belong now?
who you give that love to now who you pulling up on?
who getting sprung for now
and what's he got that ain't got?
caus ei got a lot
don't make me run up on him got me blowing up his spot cause I ain't got no business catching feeling anyway
i ain't got no business catching feelings catching feelings

these girls only want you when you're winning but you've been with me from the beginning and I know right now that we're not talking I hope you know this dick is still an option cause I'll beat it up /2x I'll take my time to learn the way your body functions you were equestrian so ride it like a champion the sex'll get you high without no other substance

who do you belong now?
who you pulling up on?
and what's he got that ain't got?
don't make me run up on him
cause I ain't got no business catching feeling anyway
catching feelings

feelings
i ain't got no business catching feelings
i ain't got no business catching feelings
i ain't got no business catching feelings

wake up I don't wake up /2x
if you ain;t lying next to me /2x

oh me, oh me, me
