

The White Stripes, Who's To Say

Who's to say that I'm unhappy 'cause I rarely smile?
Sittin', hopin', dreamin', waitin' for my ship to sail
Who's to say this time I've wasted someday won't get used?
Maybe if you come around I'll start to get enthused

Who's to say?
Who's to say?

Who's to say that I'm obsessed with everything you do
Just because it seems my schedule seems to shadow you?
Who's to say that tired cliché, "There's more fish in the sea"?
I don't mind treading water 'cause you're the one for me

You say that by now I should know you'll never love me
But who's to say that what has never been will never be?
What has been will never be

Who's to say in time I wouldn't learn how to relax?
You'd forget about my clammy hands and my nervous laugh
Who's to say the way you look at him is truly love?
Maybe they should realize I fit you like a glove

You say that by now I should know you'll never love me
But who's to say that what has never been will never be?
What has been will never be
