

This Providence, I Think You're Wonderful

I woke up this morning I found that I had a smile on my face I asked myself whats this for and I remembered you and I thought of you reality
you barely know me
I want to know you
I want to sit beside you
and talk about anything I wanna be with you
everyday with you
but that
that wont happen
that probly wont happen
no way
no way
but then I recall the nights drama I got frustrated than I went back to sleep my dreams were of you and your pretty face when I got up I wanted to get out of bed and go to your place but
you barely know me
I want to know you
and talk about everything I wanna be with you
that wont happen
no way
that'll be the day
but can I just say
I think youre wonderful, wonderful yeah
but can I just say
but you barely know me
I want to know you
no way
because you barely know me and I want to know you
I want to be with you
no way
no way
