

Thornbridge, The Dragon's Reborn

High on the mountain, fire and flames
A sign of the impending doom
Unknown invaders like creatures of hell
These are the days of the storm

The curse of the past has come back again
The circle of evil leaves traces of pain

The nightmare is back, we'll never forget
The days of the storm, the Dragon's reborn
The nightmare is back, remorseless attack
With fire and ice, an unholy hell-creature reborn

The dark dragon flies, impaled by the king
The dark lord is casting a spell
Break up the lines of thunder and storm
Stand in the fire of hell
