

Thursday, A Good Song

So i decide to close my eyes, and age, the while take a hint, relax in time it's only thursday, to hell with this day

Keep me hangin on, i can't remain keep me hangin on to your embrace when i saw you for the last time i sing to you , of salvation

so you're on display , but i'm the one they want this time

so you're on display but i'm the one they want redefine, redefine son swimming through convictions
