Thursday, A Good Song

So i decide to close my eyes, and age, the while take a hint, relax in time it's only thursday, to hell with this day

Keep me hangin on, i can't remain keep me hangin on to your embrace when i saw you for the last time i sing to you, of salvation so you're on display, but i'm the one they want this time so you're on display, but i'm the one they want this time

so you're on display but i'm the one they want this time so you're on display but i'm the one they want redefine, redefine son swimming through convictions keep me hangin on, i can't remain keep me hangin on to your embrace keep me hangin on, i can't remain keep me hangin on to your embrace
