

Thus Defiled, Fear Us For We Are The Darkness

Dawn of eternal night
Calling of the black moon
Winter's grip, reign of fear
Desire of darkness grow strong
Satan, come, lead my soul
Darkness now consume me
I walk with glory in the coming endless night
Servant in blood, live through me
Herald the returning power
Worship the Lord of hell
Through the fires of damnation
I hear him call...
Satan hear my call...
