

Tiefighter, The Face Of A Liar

Looking back on things
You were never there for me
When I needed you I needed someone here
I took a stand for you
But you wont move a finger for me
Without actions, your words mean nothing to me
Ill never make those mistakes
Youd never give but were the first to take
When you just dont fucking care
Because when you said youd call you fucking lied
This time youve gone to far
Youre speaking empty words from an empty heart
With an empty heart were you alive when you said you lived, you fucking died
No wonder you couldnt see these things
Youve always had your eyes closed
