

Tiger Army, Forever Fades Away

It burns like a fire in the night
A glow that rises and becomes the starlite
Starlite

Under the trees, in the night
you'll find it there
In the space between heartbeats where the whole world disappears

In a nightbloom garden
Our hearts did meet
Like the razor's kiss
That sealed our love

And the flame still burns (forever)
And my heart still yearns (forever)
And in my dreams the fires blaze
But the embers fade (forever)
And the light grows faint (forever)
As forever fades away, forever fades away

Inside your dreams, you will see forever stare
It surrounds us but we cannot stay - moments are all we have

But in this moment we can live a lifetime here
All that's passed and shall come falls away under the trees

In a nightbloom garden
Our hearts did meet
Like the razor's kiss
That sealed our love

And the flame still burns (forever)
And my heart still yearns (forever)
And in my dreams the fires blaze
But the embers fade (forever)
And the light grows faint (forever)
As forever fades away, forever fades away

In a nightbloom garden
Our hearts did meet
Like the razor's kiss
That sealed our love

And the flame still burns (forever)
And my heart still yearns (forever)
And in my dreams the fires blaze
But the embers fade (forever)
And the light grows faint (forever)
As forever fades away, forever fades away
forever fades away
As forever fades away
forever fades away
forever fades away
As forever fades away
forever fades away
