

Tiggs Da Author, Georgia

It's written in stone
My confidence goes
When you come,
I wish I could know
How your melting my snow
You make my water run,
I don't need your love
But I want it
Like the sunshine on a winter day,
When I wake up in the morning
And the light from the curtain
Hurts my eyes
Wanna hide and see your face

You got me singing Georgia
I'll do anything for ya
I know I lost a fortune
But at least I know I'm falling

I say you got me singing.. Georgia

I thought she was my all
I chased the rabbits North
But all she wants is carrots,
I'm just tryna be even
She don't even
Eventually I lose my balance,
I don't need your love
But I'm addicted
Like you are to designer clothes,
I don't need your drugs
But I'm fiending
Hoping I don't overdose

You got me singing Georgia
I'll do anything for ya
I know I lost a fortune
But at least I know I'm falling

I say you got me singing... Georgia

I just hope it ain't the money money money money money...love me love me honey x4

You got me singing Georgia
I'll do anything for ya
I know I lost a fortune
But at least I know I'm falling

I say you got me singing...Georgia
