

Tim Rushlow, Right Now

Close my eyes, life went by Wheres all the time that ive wasted?
Just stood still, spun my wheels, isnt it time that ive faced it, this moment im holdin, is all that ive got
I took that for granted, but this time im not

*chorus*

Heres my one chance to hold you
Heres my one chance to love you
Right now, im gonna take it, right now
Right now, gonna hang on to every minute, drink it up while im in it
Right now, im gonna live for, right now
Right now....

I learned slow but now i know, we only get what were givin
Take my hand, jump on in, we've gotta love while we're livin
So run to me baby, dont hesitate, cause maybe tomorrow might be to late

*chorus*

Heres my one chance to hold you
Heres my one chance to love you
Right now, im gonna take it, right now
Right now, gonna hang on to every minute, drink it up while im in it
Right now, im gonna live for, right now
Right now....

Heres my one chance to hold you
Heres my one chance to love you
Right now, im gonna take it, right now
Right now im gonna hang on to every minute, drink it up while im in it
Right now, im gonna live for, right now
Right now....

Heres my one chance to hold you
Heres my one chance to love you
Right now, im gonna take it, right now
Right now im gonna hang on to every minute, drink it up while im in it
Right now, im gonna live for, right now
Right now.....yea

Right now
Right now
Right now
Right now
Right now
