

Time In Malta, Moment Of Clarity

Wish I hadn't judged so hard
Especially now you're really gone
Now you're gone, gone forever
We led similar lives
I wonder what calmed my storm
And you took yours to the grave

I gotta make this count this time

It's a moment of, a moment of clarity!
One thin line that separates me from you
Only!

(I hope I never forget)
