

Tina Arena, That's The Way A Woman Feels when the sky is grey and it looks like rain just think of me, I'll come running from where ever I am just as fast as I can how could I ever stand by and watch all your hopes and your dreams just die on my word I'll be there soon I'm coming to the rescue

Chorus

That's the way a woman feels She'd walk through fire If she had to
that's the way a woman feels when she loves someone, like I love you when lightening strikes and thunder rolls and you can't find shelter from the cold if you close your eyes and say a prayer, I'll be there how could I turn away from the one whos life I'd die to save theres no sacrifce too great to make when you are the reason

Chorus

and watch all your hopes and your dreams just die

Chorus
