Tindersticks, I Was Your Man

So, you wish I was your man, and I'd understand So, you wish I was your man, and I'd understand Not a surface thing, we could meet down inside Not a surface thing, we could meet way down inside You've got a smile that never reaches your eyes You want to try to do something right So, take me home tonight Turn out the light You're just alone in the dark So, you wish I was your man, in my consciousness you ran In my eyes, you swam -- nothing's too much trouble for you So, you wish I was your man, and I'd understand So, you wish I was your man, and I'd understand you You've got a smile that never reaches your eyes You want to try to do something right So, take me home tonight Turn out the light You're just alone in the dark
