Tito & Tarantula, Strange Face

Let go of your love Ride his pulse and you forget Slow down your time will come If not tonight surely by the dawn Take it like a man... The strange face of love

A cat?s eye a lizard?s tail
The pentagram he bought in hell
He stalks the night with no intent
His brow sweets for innocence
Take it like a man...
The strange face of love

The rain?s soul makes kill and cry
He wants desperately to die
But fast and skillfully forgets
He?s back on the street with no regrets
Take it like a man...
