

Token, Have You Seen Him?

Have you seen him?
I haven't seen him, I keep pretending (yeah)
Bend her over, I fuck my life until she get pregnant (yeah)
Spread 'em open, I wanna see when I peak my head in Little boy with a dirty flesh, this kid need a cleansing (yah)
My passport tatted up
Everything in my closet I take with me
We only cry when we got nothing else to do
Why you think I stay busy?
Don't play with me (yah)
Benefits of being me
I got another you, if you decide to leave
We often say goodbye, but bye is never good
When you're the only one who really understood
I give and they take and I give and they take too
I don't know anyone here that I take to Everybody talking about me like I'm an enemy
But I don't give a muthafuck about a muthafucker
I don't even got the muthafucking energy to hate you

If I just ran away
I don't know where I'd go
I just got off the road
Ma said I still ain't home

Long time ago I was kicking, playing with the bros
Now I pop up all over the globe
Playing hide and seek as an adult
Long time ago I was kicking, playing with the bros
Have you seen him?
Hold up, where he go?
Shut the fuck up
Better start the show

Busy days shit, I've been misbehaving
Got my picture taken at the piggy station
Show money in my pillowcases
I can't sleep without some inspiration
Yeah, in Amsterdam my lips are famous
But talk to momma in a different language
She now sayin' everything she thinkin' lately
She call me sweetheart even though it's bitter tasting
Let it go, let it go, let it go
Where it go?
I don't know
Let it go
Security, security, put an end to it
Security, insecurity, put the end to it
Everyone so happy for me (everyone so happy for me)
I respond like I appreciate it
(thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you)
I wanna be happy by myself though (happy by myself though)
They respond like too much information

If I just ran away
I don't know where I'd go
I just got off the road
Ma said I still ain't home
