

Tokio Hotel, Invaded

One night, one scream
One echo
Silence louder than before
One tear of blood
on the floor
Cold wind through my broken door

Oh You're beautiful
Don't you go
I need you so

The all the pain that we shared
The all the glow that we had
It's over, It's over
But I'll always be
Lost into day in the past
Lost in the future we had
Its over Its over
But I'll always be invaded by you, invaded by you

No life, no sound
Just You and I
The end feels life
The first time

Oh you're beautiful
Don't you go
I need you so

The all the pain that we shared
The all the glow that we had
It's over, It's over
But I'll always be
Lost into day in the past
Lost in the future we had
Its over Its over
But I'll always be invaded by you
Invaded by you ,oh

Come home, come, come home
Home

The all the dreams that we shared
The all the words that we said
Its over Its over
But I'll always be
Lost into day in the past
Lost in the future we had
Its over Its over
But I'll always be invaded by you, by you
Invaded by you, woah
Invaded by you
